

MUSIC LOVER

YOUR GUIDE TO MCKINNEY'S BEST TUNES

The musical talent in McKinney, Texas has flourished over the years and is a staple in local restaurants and venues. Here in Downtown McKinney, there is something for every music lover and you'll find your vibe somewhere in this list!

Keep an eye out on Wells Group's social media for updates on music festivals and special guest artists appearing at any one of our incredible venues!

1 Rick's Lounge Laid-Back Listening

Rick's Lounge hosts a variety of live musical acts every Friday and Saturday from 7 - 11pm. Accessible through Rick's Chophouse, the lobby of the Grand Hotel, or an entrance on Louisiana St, settle into one of the deep leather couches and relax.

2 Harvest Folk Guitar

Harvest's commitment to being a community to table experience doesn't stop with the food and beverages. The selection of local singer-songwriter artists will make you fall even deeper in love with Texas.

3 The Celt Live Music Pub

Only adding to the Celt's authentic Irish feel is its live music selection. From traditional Bagpipers to invasion era cover bands you'll truly be wowed by the talent level and atmospheric setting.

4 Cadillac Pizza A Bit Of Everything

Every Friday and Saturday night you'll find Cadillac pizza packed and rocking. A variety of beloved local artists appear here regularly and some have even recorded live sets here!

5 Lone Star Wine Traditional Country

With a name like Lone Star Wine you knew they had to have some live country music on the weekends! Show your Texas pride and taste their award-winning wines with a show.

6 The Pub McKinney Merriment

On Saturday nights, mark your calendar to visit The Pub. You never know what fun band will roll through but if it's playing The Pub, you can bet it'll be great. Grab a beer, play some pool, and have fun at McKinney's premier game and live music destination.

7 Filtered Coffeehouse

Coffee just hits different when a Nora Jones cover artist is in the corner. Don't believe us? Then you've never experienced it. Stop by for a cold brew or a pour over and enjoy some easy listening.

